FOR PRESIDENT. JAMES A. GARFIELD,

of Ohio. FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,

CHESTER A. ARTHUR,

of New York. THE mud hurled at General GARFIELD cannot be made to stick. It is too thin. JOHN KELLY was recognized by the Cin cinnati convention yesterday as an interloper, and was treated accordingly. John keeps a book account, and insists upon short settlements.

THE REPUBLICAN warned THURMAN that he had appointed his own political funeral when he strided on the financial question, and now he is enjoying the baked meats. Every departure from the path of right and consistency brings its penalties.

It now turns out that Judge HOADLEY furnished CRONIN the opinion under which he acted three years ago when he sold out the state of Oregon to THERN. He has been made temporary chairman of the convention as his reward, after waiting three years. Now honors are easy.

FIVE suicides in New York for the twenty-four hours ending with noon of Tuesday. One man, aged twenty-eight, shot himself; he was an overworked bookkeeper; three men jumped from vessels into the river and were not found; one woman, young, handsome and well-dressed, drowned herself-nothing to identify her, and cause unknown.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN is in communication with the Cincinnati convention by direct wire, but it does not regard that of sufficient importance to indulge a boast. Its arrangements are such that its reports will be prompt and correct; and yet the public seem to take very little interest in what is going on in Cincinnati. The bulletin-boards are as much shunged as if they were pestilential.

THE National Temperance society, of which WILLIAM E. DODGE of New York is president, perpetrated the best joke of the season in sending a memorial to the democratic convention at Cincinnati, requesting the delegates to declare unequivocally hibition candidate.

GARIBALDI's new platform proposes that Italy shall reduce all high pensions to a thousand dollars a year; abolish the army, substitute the armed manhood of the na-"tion, and obtain two million fighting men " instead of a few hundred thousand solof diers;" disband the priests, " the bitterest " enemies of Italy," and give "a basin of one to the judigent and a spade to the paper; and "abolish prefects and sub-pre-* votes favorable to those who govern."

These wells are located about thirty niles from Liverpool, and have furnished he finest salt in the world for over 200 the shortening and probable stoppage of in line with the national administration. this supply, hitherto supposed to be inexhaustible, will seriously affect the butter and cheese industries of the country.

THE Cincinnati Enquirer is anthority for he statement that Mr. MONTGOMERY BLAIR has been telegraphed to by Mr. Til-DEN to prepare an able letter, showing that f BAYARD and THURMAN had not scram-SAYARD and THURMAN and exalt Mr. nation: PAYNE, how is that to help TILDEN? It may deliver him "safe and sound at the loor of the White House," for anybody can get there; but the trouble is to get into the executive chair with the insignia of power to act. That's where the pinch has been. THE "summer desecration of the sab bath" was the subject of some pretty strong animadversion at a meeting of minsters in New York the other day. The Sunday excursions seemed to especially trouble the reverend speakers. The New York papers of the same day reported that York papers of the same day reported that about half the churches of the city would be closed for the summer after next Sabbath, and that several of the ministers taking part in the meeting were booked for summer excursions to Europe, where they would recuperate for a couple of months without loss of salary. The worldling may be excused if he finds something akin to be excused if he finds something akin to pharisaism in the objections of such lucky ones to the short sail on the bay and the few hours' enjoyment of the ocean breezes on the beach, snatched by the tired toiler on the only day be can have without loss of one-sixth of his weekly income.

VIRGINIA POLITICS.

The Alexandria Gazette smells danger sooner and has more candor than any democratic journal within the circle of our observation. It thus early in the campaign discovers that-

There is still prevailing in several portions of the state a dread that the readjusters, by persisting in their efforts to divide the conervative party, will not only secure the re election of Mr. JORGENSEN to congress from the Petersburg district, but be the means o electing republicans from several other dis-tricts, and, worse than all, of electing the re-publican presidential electoral ticket; all, of course, to be done by plurality votes, but the effects to be just as dangerous as though carried by a majority of the people of the state. In two or three of the congressional districts the negroes constitute the majority of the voters, and the conservative conditates therein have becomes the providers that the conservative conditates therein have becomes the conservative conditates therein have becomes the conservative conditates therein have becomes the conservative conditates therein have been conservative conditates therein have been conservative. tive caudidates therein have heretofore been elected only by the most streumous efforts of a thoroughly organized and united party. If they are such, surely some means can be adopted by which the danger to which we refer can be avoided. THE SIXTH MARYLAND DISTRICT. Among the most faithful and capable of the representatives of the present congress is the Hon. M. G. URNER, of the sixth Maryland district. It was feared oled up on the electoral commission after that he might not be induced to enter the Mr. PAYNE had built and equipped it, it canvass for re-election, but we are gratified could not have fulled to deliver Mr. THAREN to feel assured by the following extract of safe and sound at the door of the White a lotter written recently by Mr. URNER to a House in March, 1877. ### POLITICAL NOTES.

Vote for me-I'm only a little one.-D.Davis. TILDEN seems to have cut the democratic arty off without a shilling. LYMAN TRUMBULL cuts a pitiable figure sanging around Cincinnati hoping that so kind of a chance will favor him. THE article in the democratic organ headed 'Garfield's Credit Mobilier Record Condensed' s a clear case of "concentrated lie,"

Tire delegates flud it as hard to make up heir minds about Tilden as he has found it LADIES' EXTRA LONG FASHIONED to make up his mind about the presidency. WITH Tilden displeased and John Kelly enraged, there will not be much left of ef election day.

As for Randell, he is the wree ked and reckess victim of his confiding trust in Tilden. He is nowhere, and is frantically going nowhither. His case is a sad one, but the convention will not adjourn for his funoral.

Jungs Hoantey called londly for the ser geant-at-arms to "put that man out"-meaning John Kelly. No sergeant-at-arms responded. If one had done so he would have found his office not of the ornamental kind,

In dropping Tilden the party loses its best aganizer and its heaviest load, its worst record and its only issue, its strongest manager and its weakest man, its most unscrupuous barrel and its least inspiring capdidate.

True World is much displeased with the asection of Judge Hondley as temporary chairnan of the Ciucinnati convention. It says: Mr. Hoadley is a republican by instinct and sociation, and a democrat only by recent and really professional ties,"

R. MILTON SPEER, a d'elegato-at-large from Penusylvania, will give up his seat to Daniel Dougherty of Philadelphia long enough for dequent Dan to nominate Hancock. Hanock has twenty-four votes from Pennsylvais, and is expected to start in with 145.
